REF: Unauthorized investigation into a registered Swiss Limited Partnerships and Business

Dear Dr. Carlton:

You are hereby notified under provisions of Public Laws 103-109 and 357-361 that Dr. Carlton, and his organization must cease & desist all unauthorized attempts at unsanctioned investigations into the registered Swiss Limited Partnerships named Cognomina [hereby – registered limited partnership], business called Hotel St. Germain [hereby – business] and all individuals whom might be associated to this registered limited partnership and or business. Failure to comply with these laws will result in our firm immediately filing a criminal and a civil complaint on behalf of our client swith the Canton of Zurich and the District Court of Königsberg against you, your staff and the university.

Specifically, Dr. Carlton is ordered to remove all unauthorized photographs of registered limited partnership individuals from his university sponsored website (www.dotheyexist.com). Photographs of at least three individuals (represented by our firm) are present on this site without their explicit or implied authorization. Furthermore, any and all research and speculation into the origin, operation, activities and intent of either the registered limited partnership or the business must cease & desist.

Accordingly, we hereby request that you immediately cease & desist from any disclosure of information about the registered limited partnership, the business or any individuals affiliated, and that you cease & desist any facilitation of disclosure, including but not limited to, the disclosure of individual indentifies, financial dealings, association of members, speculative history of registered limited partnership or business

Let this letter also serve as your warning that our firm may utilize telephone recording devices in order to document any telephone conversations that we may have in the future regarding this matter and its resolution.

Our firm is filing a motion for preliminary and permanent injunctive relief against Dr. Carlton, his staff and the university, to prevent the anticipated investigative actions their website has announced. Our firm is actively seeking a temporary restraining order and other injunctive relief in this matter. Failure to comply with these requests may expose you or your organization to an action for injunctive relief or monetary damages, and any other relief permitted under Swiss, German and European Union law, including court costs and attorneys' fees.

You may also wish to consider and examine the potential criminal consequences of your actions in this matter. Dr. Carlton, we urge you and the university board to give this matter the attention it deserves.

Regards,

██████████, Attorney
